Item 8.01 Other Events

Settlement of Certain Litigation Relating to the Merger

On or about August 13, 2018, a purported individual stockholder of MB Financial, Inc. (“MB Financial”) filed a lawsuit in the U.S. District Court for the District of Maryland (the “Court”), under the caption Parshall v. MB Financial, Inc., et. al., Case No. 1:18-cv-02474 (the “Action”). The complaint, which was filed as a putative class action on behalf of the individual plaintiff and the public stockholders of MB Financial, alleges that the proxy statement/prospectus (the “Proxy Statement/Prospectus”) forming a part of Form S-4 Registration Statement filed by Fifth Third Bancorp (“Fifth Third”) in connection with the proposed merger of MB Financial and Fifth Third does not contain certain information alleged to be material to the stockholders of MB Financial concerning the proposed merger. The complaint asserts claims against MB Financial, the members of its board of directors, and Fifth Third under federal securities laws for distributing the Proxy Statement/Prospectus with allegedly false or misleading statements or omissions. The complaint seeks, among other things, injunctive relief against consummation of the merger and additional, allegedly corrective disclosures as well as attorneys’ and expert fees.

Solely to avoid the costs, risks, nuisance and uncertainties inherent in litigation and to allow MB Financial stockholders to vote on the proposals required in connection with the proposed merger with Fifth Third at the special meeting of MB Financial stockholders to be held on September 18, 2018 (the “Special Meeting”), MB Financial hereby supplements the disclosures contained in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus (the “Additional Disclosures”). The Additional Disclosures are set forth below and should be read in conjunction with the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

In light of the Additional Disclosures, plaintiff has agreed to dismiss the Action with prejudice as to his individual claims and without prejudice to the claims of the members of the putative class. In dismissing the Action, plaintiff has reserved the right to seek an award of attorneys’ fees from the Court.

The agreement to make the Additional Disclosures will not affect the merger consideration to be paid to MB Financial stockholders or the timing of the Special Meeting.

MB Financial and the other defendants, including Fifth Third, vigorously deny that the Proxy Statement/Prospectus is deficient in any respect and that the Additional Disclosures are material or required. MB Financial and Fifth Third believe that the claims asserted in the Action are without merit, and that the Additional Disclosures do not provide information required by the federal securities laws or that is material to the decision of the MB Financial stockholders as to how to vote their shares at the Special Meeting. As noted above, the Additional Disclosures are being made solely to eliminate the burden, expense, and nuisance of further litigation, and to avoid any possible delay to the closing of the merger that might arise from further litigation. Nothing in this document shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under any applicable laws for any of the disclosures set forth herein.

SUPPLEMENT TO PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS

The following information supplements the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and should be read in connection with the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, which should be read in its entirety. To the extent that information herein differs from or updates information contained in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, the information contained herein supersedes the information contained in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus. All page references in the information below are to pages in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, and terms used below have the meanings set forth in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, unless otherwise defined below. Without admitting in any way that the disclosures below are material or otherwise required by law, MB Financial and Fifth Third make the following Additional Disclosures:
